About IFS Document Hub

On our upcoming new website, our partners and stakeholders will find a particular useful feature – the IFS Document Hub. It is our central and free library where you can find all publicly available IFS documents. Here, you can download all publications on our current standards, programs, checks, and other relevant topics.

Benefits

Easy access to all publicly available IFS Documents via one place on the website.

Simplified search and download of documents in different types and languages.

Target-oriented search for specific standards, programs, checks and other information documents.

Always up to date: All new IFS Documents and always the latest version are directly available.

Time-saving and efficient: No need to search for and download documents from different pages on the website.

Features

You can find and download all free IFS documents in the available languages in the Document Hub. The search function allows you to search specifically for the document you are looking for. In addition, you can refine your search with further filters to make the number of results more manageable.
